From the President --- Donna Cushman:

Can you believe another two months have flown by and now it's fall. The leaves are turning and in some cases, have fallen off the trees. The end of 2008 is just around the corner.

Elections for RRS officers will be held at the board meeting in November. Sign up sheets are at the registration table for the next two dances. RRS needs people willing to serve on the board. We meet the first dance of the month at 7 p.m. For your service you will receive free membership and free admittance to the dances. The Board members consist of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, Publicity, Activities & Special Events, Newsletter & E-mail, Dance Scheduling, Membership and Website. If you are interested in any position, please register. RRS cannot function without a board. Please volunteer. the club needs you!

In December, RRS will be on the move. The Christmas and New Years dances will be held at El Zagal (1429 3rd St N, Fargo) and in January we move to our new home at the American Legion in downtown Fargo. The American Legion has a bigger dance floor and everyone sits together. Some might say it has better ambiance. The board hopes this move will prompt more people to attend. It will need to, as our expenses will be greater than they are at the Sons of Norway.

The Sons of Norway have been gracious hosts to us. They don't want us to leave. The only problem we had was Prom night, and they have made up for that by paying our expenses that night and giving us another dance with no rent or security due. The board feels they have made amends for the miscommunication between management and staff. Please support them in any way you can.

RRS is partnering with the NDSU Fine Arts Department for a night out at their fall production "Beyond Therapy". We will be attending as a group on Friday, October 10 at 7:30 p.m. in Askanase Auditorium. After the play, we will have coffee with the cast and crew at Jitters Coffee located between the Theater and Parking Lot T. Everyone will pay for their own beverages/treats. RRS Discount is $10 Adults, $8 Seniors (60+). Tell them you are with RRS. Please pre-register by e-mailing RRS or calling 218-233-0517 and leaving a message.

Don't forget that our Halloween dance is coming up on October 25. There will be prizes for the best costumes. So please dress up, and bring someone new.

Many of you are probably wondering how the economy is affecting RRS. Well RRS has been in a slump for a while. The simple answer is that there are not enough people attending the dances to make a profit. We need to have about 125 to break even, and we have been having less than 100 at most of the dances. We do have money in the bank, so we are not in trouble at this time, but the trend has to change. The board asks you to please help by picking up flyers at the dances or printing those sent to you via e-mail and hanging them up, telling friends, coworkers and everyone you know about the group. The board realizes that we cannot please everyone, but we do welcome your suggestions. We would like to see younger people attending as well.

Your couch or mine?

Set in 1980s Manhattan. It is the story of naive Prudence as she struggles with the singles scene with the help of her chauvinistic therapist. When she answers Bruce's zany personal ad, her world is thrown into a tailspin of crying, love triangles, guns and inept therapists. Love as usual, but through the skewed sensibilities of the award-winning comedic writer Christopher Durang.
